IN THE HIGH COURT OF JUDICATURE AT BOMBAY
ORDINARY ORIGINAL CIVIL JURISDICTION

Appeal Lodging No. 237 of 2005
in
Notice of Motion No. 567 of 2004
in
S.J. No. 662 of 2000
in
Sum Suit No.l528 of 2000

Shree Jijesh J Shah ..Appellant

vs.

Shree Sanjay Fatehpuria....Respondent.
with
Appeal Lodging No. 238 of 2005
in
Notice of Motion No. 568 of 2004
in
S.J.No.685 of 2000
in
Sum Suit No.l878 of 2000

Shree Jijesh J Shah and anr ..Appellants

vs.

Shree Sanjay Fatehpuria....Respondent.

Mr. A Y Bookwala i/b Mr J J Shah for appellants
Mr M L Bansal for respondent.

CORAM: A.P.SHAH & S.J.VAZIFDAR JJ.
2nd May 2005.

P.C.

. Heard Mr Bookwala,Amicus Curaie for the appellants and Mr. Bansal for the respondent.

2. By consent both the Appeals are taken up for hearing. By consent the impugned are set aside and the Notices of Motions are restored to file of the learned single Judge.

3. Mr. Bookwala states that the appellants will take out fresh notice of motion for appropriate reliefs within four weeks. The motions to be taken out by the appellants shall be heard alongwith the motions already filed by the appellants. The learned single Judge is requested to expedite the hearing of the motions.

4. All contentions on merits are left open to the parties.

Appeals are disposed of accordingly.